Rob Curtis serves as an Exchange Director at Legal 1031 Exchange Services, LLC, bringing extensive experience in IRC §1031 tax-deferred exchanges and real estate transactions. Based in Arizona, he works closely with investment property owners, commercial and residential brokers, attorneys, CPAs, and other real estate industry professionals across the state.

With extensive 1031 exchange expertise, Rob is committed to educating and assisting investors and their team of advisors on the intricacies of 1031 exchanges. He has built strong working relationships within the CRE Brokerage community, supporting professionals and their clients through the exchange process. His presentations are practical and engaging, incorporating real-life exchange scenarios to illustrate various tax and investment strategies. Rob has shared his knowledge at numerous real estate workshops, continuing education classes, industry events, and conferences.

Rob is an active affiliate member of CCIM, NAIOP, SIOR, and the Federation of Exchange Accommodators (FEA), strengthening his connections within the commercial real estate community.
